

Part 1: STORYTELLING Story Circle / The Hero's Journey

(Illustrations from <https://www.story24.film/story-circle.php>)

Part 2: STORYTELLING How to Write a Good Story

Difficult word/phrase	Swedish translation	Easier replacement creative		showing the ability to create interesting abandon		leave behind and alone permanently storytelling		acts of telling stories (or lies) principles		ways of thinking/basic truths/rules transformation		change in form or appearance
narrative		story
storyteller		person who tells stories (or lies) seemingly		appearing to be protagonist		main character atonement		reparation for a wrong or injury normal		usual/ commonly and regular/ healthy chaos		noise and confusion
realm		world
seeks		looks (for)
capture		take (prisoner) by force a host of		many
abyss		an immeasurably depth

crime wave		sudden rise in crime
antagonist		person or thing that irritates and fights avenge		get revenge
journey		trip

Watch this video: <https://youtu.be/-XGUVkOmPTA>

And/or watch the first 9 minutes of this video: <https://youtu.be/tFaUmXlobuE>

Part 3: KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT

Now go to your school email account and answer the questions LESSON 8 KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT

If there is time left:

Look at the story circle / hero's journey illustrations, and start creating your own short story.